OPCAT Ratification

Process

2011-2013

In January 2011, Nauru was examined by the Universal Periodic Review of the Human Rights Council. On that occasion, several States recommended Nauru to ratify the Convention against Torture and its Optional Protocol. A few months later, Nauru responded to those recommendations and accepted to take actions on those two instruments.

On 24 January 2013, Nauru deposited the instrument of accession to the OPCAT to the United Nations in New York. This action was made possible as Nauru had also joined the Convention against Torture a few months earlier (September 2012).
